

Stage North Terrifies Fort St. John

Stage North is proud to present the musical comedy, "Little Shop of Horrors". This "B" Movie Sci-fi musical is about a nebishy plant store clerk named, Seymour who discovers an amazing plant during a lunar eclipse. This plant has the power to make all of Seym,our's dreams come true. What chilling pri ce will Seymour have to pay to get his dreams? Come to the North Peace Cultural Centre February 26, 27 or March 4, 5, & 6 and find out.

Little Shop of Horrors stars: Kelly Smith, Lowell Constable, Larry Evans, Tom Kerishner, Charles Miller, Marian Truscott, Krysta Brown and Christa Pare. Directing Little Shop is professional actor ian Forsyth. Musocal direction is by Esther Oosterbaan. Showtime is 8:00 pm each evening in the Tehatre at the Cultural Centre. Seating for this show will be RESERVED so call early and charge your tickets by phone, or drop by the North Peace Cultural Centre to but tickets. Prices are: $12 for adults and $9 for seniors and students. For information and tickets call the box office at 785-1992.

Can Canettes do More Than Can-Can!!!

The local Can-Canettes have taken up acting and singing as well as continuing their very popular career as Can-Canettes. These ladies are very busy. Not only do the Can-Canettes practise their own acts 2 times a week, now they are taking part in rehearsals for the Dawson Creek opereta "The Merry Widow". operetta "The Merry Widow" will take place in Dawson Creek on March 12 & 13th at Unchaga~~h~~ Hall beginning at 8 PM each evening. Tickets are $15 per person and are availa~~b~~e in Dawson Creek at the Lotto Centre and the Friendly Book Worm. People in Fort St. John can order tickets over the phone by calling 1-782-3607. "The Merry Widow" is a happy love story and this performance promises to be very professional with actors coming from Vancouver and Edmonton, Ukrainian dancers from Alberta and of course our very own Can-Canettes!!!

Northern Dance News

Northern Dance Theatre Society would like to thank the community for their ongoing support. Lookingf back to our first fundraiser in the new theatre, "LA Express" and more recently to our annual chocolate drive.

The troupe was honoured with the invitation to dance for the Annual Oilwives convention and the Care Home before Christmas.

One of our highlights for the year is a trip to Edmontion by chartered bus in February to view the Royal Winnipeg's Ballet production of Remeo and Juliet. Andrea VanDonselaaqr, Alumna dancer has a major role as Juliet's Nurse.

During Sping Beak March 13-18, the troupe will be competing in Prince George at the B./C. Festival of the Arts. Upon returning home we prepare for Fort St. John's, Festival of the Arts, April 1, 2, and 3rd with an Honors performance April 4th at the MacKenzie Inn.

The Annual Fort St. John Dance Extravanganza is schedulred for April 23 & 24 at the Cultural Centre iwth 3 hosws. To wind down the years actiivities, May 2 is Jessiosn Studios Annual Recital and Awards. We invite the Public to please support the many varied and talented children within our society that our community is so proud to calll our own.