

The Jurors

K. Marjorie Henn

Marjorie was born near Beaverlodge, Alberta and returned in 1991 after having studied at Alberta College of Art (Commercial Art) and enjoyed that for 30 years. The next 33 years of her career were devoted to Architectural Illustration, from Vancouver Island to Edmonton. In Beaverlodge she now has a Studio/Gallery. In addition to doing commissions and exhibiting, she also teaches classes and workshops across the Peace.

Marjorie's main medium is watercolor but she is also proficient in pen and ink, and oils.

She is an active member of the Grande Prairie Art Gallery Society, Beaverlodge Art Society, Peace Watercolor Society, Board member of the Art of the Peace Society and a Founding member & Chair of the McNaught Homestead Preservation Society.

Carrie Klukas

Grande Prairie artist Carrie Klukas has experience in a wide range of media including painting, bronze casting, printmaking, clay sculpture, pottery, and metalwork. Prior to attending the Alberta College of Art and Design, majoring in painting, she was a Commercial Interior Designer in Calgary for 12 years. Carrie found more freedom in the world of visual art and has been a practicing artist and teacher since then.

Carrie started at the Prairie Gallery as technician, then Assistant Curator and finally the Interim Director. She has also worked at the Creative Arts Centre in Grande Prairie, eventually becoming the Director.

For the past several years she has concentrated on doing her art full time, embracing her creative side. Her work is included in many public and private collections throughout Alberta.

Robert Stevens: Robert Steven is the Executive Director and Curator of the Prairie Art Gallery. In his five years there, he has overseen both the Gallery's emergency response to its devastating roof collapse in 2007 and construction projects to expand and restore the Gallery valued at nearly fifteen million dollars. Robert holds a Master of Museum Studies degree from the University of Toronto, and a Bachelor of Arts in Honours Fine Arts from the University of Waterloo. Robert moved to the Peace Country in 2006 with his wife Janette and their eldest daughter Saffron from Kitchener, Ontario where he was the Collections Manager at the Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery. They have since welcomed a second daughter, Cassia. In 2009, Robert was selected to attend the prestigious Museum Leadership Institute at the Getty Leadership Institute in Los Angeles. Robert is an active member of the Canadian Art Museum Directors Organization, the Rotary Club of Grande Prairie, the Kin Club of Grande Prairie, and he volunteers for numerous committees relating to arts and culture in Grande Prairie.

Sabine Schneider: Originally from Germany, Sabine completed her Bachelor of Fine Arts from Emily Carr University of Art, Design and Media in Vancouver, British Columbia, in 2007. Sabine has travelled in Europe, Mexico and Central America and studied sculpture with a Master ceramicist in Germany as well as drawing and painting at the Universitario de Arte in Guadalajara in Mexico and with a Tsutujil Master painter at Lake Atitlan in Guatemala. She currently works for The Prairie Art Gallery in Grande Prairie, Alberta, as Research and Interpretive Educator/Community Experience Manager and studies at the European Graduate School in Saas Fee, Switzerland, to complete a Master of Arts in Expressive Arts. She has a variety of teaching experiences, from Post-Secondary art education to socially relevant community programs. Her mixed media work has been exhibited in Canada and the U.S.
