

PLOTTING HER ROUTE to New Brunswick is 18-year-old Caroline Woodward of Cecil Lake. Caroline, who is the Alaska Highway News' high school correspondent won the trip last July while at the BC 4-H Club Week in Vernon. She was one of 10 BC 4-H'ers chosen to exchange inter-provincial visits this coming summer. While in the east Caroline will spent one week with a New Brunswick 4-H family and one week at the New Brunswick 4-H Club Week. Caroline has been doubly lucky lately in that she also won a draw on April 1 for a $50 gift certificate at a local clothing store. The draw was sponsored by the local Business and Professional Women's Club and Caroline is seen here in some of the garments she has purchased with her winnings.
