

My Dear Husband,

As of today, I have quit being a professional volunteer, a community catalyst, a cultural supporter and a BC Pavilion fo-boy. I quit! I am coming home to wash clothes, clean house, cook marvelous meals and generally make my life miserable. I will have everything in tip-top shape for about one week, I'd say, and go stir crazy enough to go out and get a real job. The cause of all this resolution, you ask? We just got kicked out of the god-damn Artspace—after 4 years on 30 day notice, we got our 30 day notice as of 2:05 this afternoon.

Jason is at Jay's ~~xxxx~~ I am weeping at the Artspace.
Love,
