THE FORT ST. JOHN COMMUNITY ARTS COUNCIL is dedicated to the stimulation and development of cultural activities in the North Peace. The Arts Council encourages individuals and groups to promote arts programs and support community events.

The Community Arts Council has been a non-profit charitable organization since 1967. All donations contributed to programs of the Arts Council receive tax-deductible receipts. The Arts Council has been proud to have assisted in the development of the North Peace Cultural Centre, the Artspace Classes, the North Peace Museum, the Community Band Program and the Community Music Program along with numerous individual activities in the North Peace.

THE LINDSAY DUMAINE MEMORIAL MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND is awarded to a graduate of North Peace Secondary School who is pursuing further education in music. The fund was initiated by Lindsay Dumaine's parents after Lindsay was tragically killed in an automobile accident in 1992. All contributions to the fund remain as capital to create the interest used for the scholarship. Your contribution would be most welcome.

You are invited to Arts Council Meetings each month on the second Thursday at 7:00 p.m. at the North Peace Cultural Centre.

The Community Arts Council of Fort St. John has a membership of 28 Arts Groups including all arts disciplines.

The newsletter INSIGHT INTO THE ARTS is published three times each year. Please contact the Arts Council at

Box 6474, Fort St. John, B.C. V1J 4H7

The 1993-'94 Partly Arts Series

Halan Hula

Dance, music, and songs of the people of Hawaii. Eight performers direct from Hawaii will reflect the history and heritage of Hawaii, past and present, using the stylized dance of the Hula.

October 8, 1993
8:00 P.M.

Blackthorn

Traditional music of the British Isles from medieval to modern. This six member vocal and instrumental folk group offers a changing mosaic of sound from Scotland, Wales, Ireland and England.

November 13, 1993
8:00 P.M.

Harps International

A unique combination of folk and classical repertoire from around the world. The talented trio of musicians play a wide variety of international harps from an ornate, six foot, concert grand harp to Celtic and Paraguayan harps and delight the audience with musical stories.

November 24, 1993
8:00 P.M.

Foothills Brass

Entertaining, Canadian brass musicians. Rhythm and harmony mark their way through the exciting brass repertoire which the five players vary to suit the audience's pallet.

January 20, 1994
8:00 P.M.

Local Anxiety

A satirical comedy team focussed at the heart of British Columbia's role in Canadian politics. This good-time mixture of songs and hilarious sketches is reminiscent of good-time vaudeville.

March 11, 1994
8:00 P.M. at the Pioneer Inn

Michael Injae Kim

Concert pianist described as energetic and dynamic. Calgary born Mr. Kim is proclaimed as one of the finest Canadian concert pianists of our time. He has won over 120 awards and has played with many of the well-known orchestras in Canada.

April 7, 1994
8:00 P.M.

All performances except 'Local Anxiety' will be at the North Peace Cultural Centre.

Partly Arts Series

1994-95

October 26 The Impossible Balance
with Jim Jackson as "Sole"

The delightful antics of the clown, Sole, presents the Gallery of Impossible Balance in his hilarious quest for literal and figurative balance using a unique blend of circus and theatre.

November 15 Jaccee Dallyn
A Spunky Singer with a Powerful Voice

Blending country, blues and a dash of Broadway, Jaccee electrifies an audience. The powerful four octave range of her voice has added to the concerts of Marty Haggard, Rita

McNeil, Prairie Oyster, Tommy Banks and Big Miller and The Edmonton Symphony Orchestra.

February 17 Tuxedo Junction
A Quartet with a Big Band Sound

Lively and infectious rhythms from the swing era, do-wops of the 50's and popular songs of the 60's and 70's gets audiences tapping their feet and swinging along. Three part vocal harmony with guitar, base, and saxophone blend music favourites into a entertaining evening.

March 17 Swinging Bovines
Jazz and Folk the Saxophone Style

Four sax players, with a little jazz, a little folk, and a little classical making traditional barriers non-existent among differing music styles. Add a fresh, young sense of humour and the concert is fun for everyone.

All concerts are at 8 P.M. at the North Peace Cultural Centre.

Season Tickets now available at the North Peace Cultural Centre
