

SOCIETY NEWS

WELCOME TO THE 1980-81 FORT ST. JOHN CONCERT SOCIETY SERIES!
We are pleased to begin our season with the Nationally renown
Canadian Brass.

NOTIFICATION OF AMENDMENT -

The Society wishes to notify our members and patrons of our intention to amend the clause in our constitution concerning the audit date. The present date is June 30th and it would simplify our year-end if it could be changed to May 31st. We will entertain a motion on this amendment at the December 1st concert. Any questions concerning this please call 785-6061.

FUTURE CONCERTS -

December 1, 1980 - Musica da Camera
February 20, 1981 - Trio Anjoleo (in place of Sarabande)
March 27, 1981 - Maple Sugar
May 5, 1981 - Liona Boyd

FOYER LIST -

In the foyer is a list of this season's concerts, if you can help in anyway (handing out programs, setting up stage, etc.) please sign up or contact Dexter Van Dyke. We would appreciate any help at all.

DAWSON CREEK CONCERTS -

Unfortunately we were not able to arrange reciprocal concerts with Dawson Creek for the 1980-81 season. Dawson Creek has three concerts this season on their agenda. The Chinese Circus is for Dawson Creek season tickets holders only, Liona Boyd on May 6th, 1981 and Purcell Strings.

NEXT CONCERT SOCIETY MEETING -

Will be held on Wednesday, November 12, 1980 at Shirley Rowlands home on 9603-112 Avenue at 8:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

TORONTO DANCE THEATRE -

Northern Lights College and Jellison School of Dance are bringing the "Toronto Dance Theatre" to Fort St. John on November 5, 1980. Tickets can be obtained during intermission at the door.

COME MEET THE PERFORMERS -

Following this evenings performance there will be a "NO-HOST" gathering at the Dandyllion Cafe (10007-95 Ave.). Come and meet the artists.

SOCIETY NEWS

WELCOME to our second concert of our 1980-81 season. Musica da Camera Praga from Czechoslovakia has toured extensively in Europe and North America and we are pleased to present them tonight.

AMENDMENT:

Motion to amend audit date as stated in the Fort St. John Concert Society constitution (proposal - date to be changed from June 30th to May 31st).

PACIFIC CONTACT:

Your representatives Shirley Rowland and Ria Lok attended Pacific Contact in Vancouver, November 7, 8 and 9. This conference is sponsored by the B.C. Touring Council and the Touring Office of the Canada Council. The B.C. Touring Council has over 300 members representing arts councils, colleges, school districts, sponsors, artists and agents.

The conference included speakers from businesses, artists, and professional arts organizations; workshops about sponsoring, marketing and fund-raising. Particularly beneficial to concert associations were the three showcases of excerpts from performances available for touring throughout Canada.

Doug Edgar, 2046 MacDonald Ave., Prince George, B.C. is your representative on the Touring Council from the Northeast Region for 1980-81.

FOYER LISTS:

In the foyer is a list of various choices of concerts. We are in the process of planning next season's concerts (1981-82) and would appreciate your assistance in selecting what you would like the Concert Society to bring in. Please check your preferences.

Dexter Van Dyke still needs help in setting up and dismantling the stage. We would appreciate any assistance at all.

NEXT CONCERT SOCIETY MEETING:

Will be held on Monday, January 12, 1981 at the Northern Lights College at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

NEXT CONCERT:

Date to remember, Friday, February 20th, 1981 at 8:00 p.m. Trio Anjoleo - accordion, violin and voice.

COME MEET THE PERFORMERS:

Meet the artists at a "No-Host" gathering at the Dandyllion Cafe (10007-95 Ave.) following this evenings performance.

Society News

WELCOME TO MULBERRY STREET JAZZ BAND. This concert was made possible through the generous support of our patrons and members. The Jazz Band has performed for 11 schools in the district this past week as part of the School Performing Arts Program. Approximately 3300 students enjoyed the jazz performances which were specifically geared toward various age levels.

CONFERENCE:

Two representatives of the Concert Society, Sharon Britney and Laura Lee Life are attending Showcase '80 in Edmonton this weekend. They are participating in workshops on sponsoring and fundraising and viewing various touring groups.

WELCOME:

The Dandy Lion Cafe welcomes you after the performance tonight to enjoy some refreshment and a chat with the performers. The cafe is located next to the Racquet Ball Club. Address: 10007 95 Ave.

THANK YOU TO:

The 1979-80 Society Executive for their dedication and hard work which made this concert series a great success.

Ed and Neda Forrester for handing out programs.

Ross Pomeroy and his crew for putting up and dismantling the stage.

Everyone who helped to take tickets, set up chairs, hand out programs and all the other tasks that are necessary for a concert series.

PLEASE OFFER YOUR ASSISTANCE IN THE COMING YEAR!!!!
