A Memoir

SUMMER
◀◀— OF THE —▶▶ HORSE

Donna Kane's memoir, Summer of the Horse, is about the preservation of wild(er)ness—both outside and within. Set in the Muskwa-Kechika area, it explores the ecology of Northern BC while offering a unique commentary on what it's like to be immersed in one of the few remaining intact ecosystems on the planet. At the same time, it is a tale of self-discovery that occurs through the embrace of all things wild.
