

I WISH WE HAD STAGE NORTH LETTERHEAD!

21ST AUGUST 1999

Hi Everyone,

I hope you had a great summer, I did. With lots of traveling, and too many plane trips! However I'm ready and looking forward to our new season, and what a full one it proves to be.

These are the facts, as far as I know them so far. Of course things may change from time to time, we have not had our first board meeting of the year yet, so if some facts are wrong please let me know.

Auditions for this years shows:

Thursday Sept. 9/99 and Friday Sept. 10/99 7-00pm Cultural centre.

Please note that there will be call backs on the following Sunday. These will be held at the Stage North rehearsal space unless changed.

Shows this year are:

Show time late Nov. Noises Off director Tom Kirschner
3 Acts 5 Men 4 Women.

"This play is a farce, about farce. Showing the madness that can sometimes happen in the wonderful world of theatre. From the director to the actors and the back stage hands, it gives new meaning to 'the Show Must Go On!'"

Show time Mid January Steel Magnolias Director Blair Scott.
3 Acts 6 Women

The action takes place in the southern States, in a beauty salon. The actors take you on an emotional roller coaster ride. You will laugh, you will cry and you will be suprised.

Show time MARCH and Festival in APRIL, with possibility of travelling to Mainstage in JULY 99.

(a) Under The Skin. Director Sandi (Phillipa) Kirschner.
a Drama in 3 Acts. 2 Women 1 Man.

"This play is based on actual events which took place in Vancouver over 20 years ago. The first act begins after the disappearance of a young girl. The actors interact, drawing the audience into their worlds, until the play reaches it's chilling conclusion. This play will demand a great deal of emotional commitment from it's actors"

(b) A Frog Galliard. Director June Ainsworth.

one act - dramatic Comedy. 5 Men 1 Woman.

"An Elizabethan poet lies dying! A series of visitors-his drinking buddy, the doctor, the priest, and his landlady/lover, all give their advise. The poets only concern, is that his rival (William Shakespeare) will steal his manuscripts after his death! Entre Shakespeare- who decides to give the poet a grand theatrical death, enlisting the acting skills of the doctor and priest!

What a Great selection, but that's not all

Sept. 25th 26th Sept. Theatre B.C. Peace River Zone Workshop.

This is a weekend of fun and instruction.

The workshop director this fall is Kate Weiss. Kate is a professor of theatre at U.B.C. I have taken one her workshops before, and found her to be very inspirational..See over page for further details. Please register early, so that I can arrange things. We will be using the Frog Galliard Script, and I will have to photocopy and distribute them.

This workshop is being sponsered by Stage North and heavilky subsidized by Theatre B.C.. There will be a small enrolment fee, to cover the cost of renting rooms.

The next Stage North Board Meeting will be at the Stage North Rehearsal space at 7-30pm on Tuesday 14th September.

The Peace River Zone Meeting will be at 7-00pm (Sharp) same evening.
