FILM-DETOUR (1945) DIRECTED BY Edgar G. Ulmer

Now a cult favourite, Ulmer's legendary low-budget film noir is often cited as the greatest B-movie ever made. The deliciously dooladen plot has Roberts, a pessimistic pianist at a tawdry new York nightclub, hitchhiking west to join fiancée Sue, a would-be singer working as a waitress in Hollywood. Offered a ride by the amiable Haskell, the hapless hero quickly discovers that fate--and an alluring femme fatale named Vera has sent him on a deadly detour."

THE GALAPAGOS

This stunning exhibit by Edna McPhail stands as a visual record of a fascinating journey.

cinema of fear

We open our Spring film series with Bernardo Bertolucci's THE CONFORMIST. (1969) Widely considered Bertolucci's masterpiece, he maps out how the pitiable, if seemingly innocuous desire to fit in, to be "normal" can lead to devastating results. (shown with the short film - LOU LOU: PRISONER OF PASSIONS.)

The Gryphon Trio

This internationally acclaimed trio will play a program of Haydn, Beethoven and Dvorak. With Piano, Violin and Cello the Gryphon Trio has charmed audiences with their friendly, accessible presentations. Their popularity soared last year after being profiled on CBC's The National. Although for music lovers of all ages and tastes, this show would be especially good as an introduction to classical music.

 Fort St. John
 I remember it as the Bay building. It's beautiful, something Fort St. John needed for a long time.

"It was special. If June 27, 1992 is any indication of what the North Peace Cultural Centre can mean to the North Peace in general and Fort St. John in particular then it is truly a gem." - Jack Philpot

 I think it's great! It's comparable to some of what we have at home. The library's good and the theatre is nice. Congratulations, Fort St.
 John!
