

17 Peace art works chosen to go to provincial art show

april 8
DUP

The adjudicators of the recent Peace River Regional Juried Art Show in Fort St. John chose 17 works from the 125 entries to represent the Peace Country at the Images and Objects provincial art show in Duncan, B.C. at the end of May.

The 15 artists, whose works were chosen, will be assisted in travelling to Duncan for the B.C. Festival of Arts. The Peace Country regional artists will join others from around the Province at the Festival of Arts' workshops, shows and receptions.

Artworks were chosen by Dawson Creek artists Laine Dahlen, Mary Ann Skin, Barbara Swail, Don Petit, Ted Phillips; Pouce Coupe artists Graham Cotk, Susan Dixon; Arras artist Marg Baker; Fort St. John artists Valerie Dahl, Margaret Cavers, Peter Von Thesenhausen, Peter Vogelaar, Cindy Vincent; Charlie Lake artist Robert Young. The adjudicators, Mia Johnson from

APR 1987
Vancouver and Michael Cullin from Victoria were impressed with the wide variety of works displayed at the Regional Juried Show which was held at the Fort St. John Art Gallery from April 4-10.

Regional Juried Shows were held throughout the Province with the assistance of the Assembly of British Columbia Arts Councils and the assistance of the Cultural Services Branch of the Ministry of Tourism, Recreation and Cultural. The Peace Country Juried show was sponsored by the Fort St. John Community Arts Council with assistance from the Peace River Liard Regional District Arts Advisory Board.

The Annual Peace Country Regional Juried Show is held each year in a different location in the region. Artists can look forward to another Regional Juried Show in the Spring of 1988.

DUP

NORTH PEACE ART GALLERY

THE JURIED ART SHOW started its run at the Art Gallery in the Totem Mall Friday and will continue to the end of the week.

APR 1981