A GREAT SEASON OF PLAYS AND MORE STAGE NORTH 2010-2011

Chicago The Musical

October 29, 30, November 4, 5, 6, 2010

BOOK by Fred and Bob Fosse     Director: Jenn Strachan
MUSIC by John Kander             Choreographer: Emry Mika
LYRICS by Fred Ebb                 Producer: Shauna Milne
BASED on the play CHICAGO     Costumes: Catherine Ruddell
by Maurine Dallas Watkins     Music Director: Sandra Gunn

This well-known Broadway musical Chicago is a satire on corruption in the administration of criminal justice in Chicago, Illinois in 1927. The character of celebrity criminal, Roxie Hart, is based on a real, accused murderess who was acquitted, thanks to the "fancy footwork" of corrupt Lawyer Billy Flynn. Roxie's competition while in jail awaiting trial is Velma Kelly, a vaudevillian who murdered her husband and her sister when she found them in bed together. Roxie and Velma compete for Billy's attention, love and brilliant, though somewhat dubious, methods as a defence lawyer.

The Pink Panther Strikes Again

February 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 2011

By William Gleason                     Director: Rob Laventure
Based on the film by Blake             Producer: Twyla Jordan
Edwards & Frank Waldman

The world's most unusual criminologist, Chief Inspector Jacques Clouseau, fights for his life and for the future of all mankind in the most bizarre and dangerous caper of his brilliantly successful and utterly clumsy career.

Oscar Night on the Big Screen

February 27, 2011

The paparazzi greet the Oscar Night guests who come to view the Academy Awards live on the big screen as they are happening in Hollywood. Pizza is served compliments of the local pizza establishments and popcorn and drinks are available. Spontaneous Combustion performs throughout the evening. Prizes and movie memorabilia complete the evening of fun.

Spontaneous Combustion presents

"Snow Follies" Dinner Theatre

November 19, 2010

Director: Clarice Eckford

Audience involvement is the key to this fun-filled evening of improv. A full course dinner with entertainment, where anything can happen and usual does, completes this Improv Dinner Theatre. Local players of Spontaneous Combustion take audience suggestions to act out various comical and, often absurd, situations. Suggestion audience 13 years or older.

Miracle on 34th Street

December 29, 30, and 31, 2010

From the novel by                         Director: Blair Scott
Valentine Davies                         Producer: Dale Hillman
Adapted by Patricia Di Benedetto
Snyder, Will Severin and John Vreeke

As Macy's Department Store holiday Santa, Kris Kringle enchants children and shoppers so completely that he is deemed dangerous by fellow employees who question his competency and plot to ruin him. A small girl's belief in Santa and the magic of Christmas is at stake in a climactic courtroom decision. This hilarious, tsxdender and charming show for the entire family is a Christmas classic.

Kingfisher Days

April 29, 30, May 5, 6, 7, 2011

By Canadian Playwright
Susan Coyne

Director: Clarice Eckford

A young girl finds a letter addressed to her in a stone fireplace during the summer holiday of 1963. Unable to read at her age, a neighbouring cottager articulates the contents written by Nootsie Tah, a displaced fairy princess. Filling the long days of summer to follow, Nootsie Tah acts out events of her mystical world including a debate about the value of teaching cats to speak French and skating on water in a perfect 6.0 finish.
