Location: Artspost 10320 94 Avenue 250-787-2781

The Fort St. John Community Arts Council serves the entire population of the North Peace as a charitable, non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to developing arts programming, supporting creative activities for children and adults and identifying much-needed arts facilities for the community. Organized in 1967, the Fort St. John Arts Council has initiated and helped develop lasting Arts and Heritage programs, groups, and venues making Fort St. John and area a vibrant arts community. The Arts Council believes that creative activities are essential for a healthy mind as part of an overall healthy lifestyle.

2014-15 Accomplishments:

- The Fort St. John Community Arts Council took on the organization of the Artwalk for the first time because the previous committee of local artists was dissolving. 2015 was the Third Artwalk for the community and was extended to one month from mid June to mid July.
- Street banners of original artwork by local artist Alan White were supplied to the City of Fort St. John to add a new dimension to the Artwalk.
- The Arts Council and member groups played a role in the Bright Nights in June community-wide celebrations of the arts in June 2015.

- The Arts Council revisited the policy for the Arts Bursary and Scholarship fund which awards promising high school and college graduates in visual, literary and performing arts. More funds have been put into the program and the scholarships to high school students have been increased.
- The Herbal Pot sale for Mother's Day was a new project which offered handpainted, large flower pots with 5 seedlings of herbs and spices plus potting soil.
- The Arts Council continues to operate the Artspost Studios for pottery, spinning and weaving and painting classes moving into the 10th year. Demand for space is exceeding the current availability.
- The annual programs of the Recycled Christmas Decoration Sale and the "World Best Pies" at the North Pine Fall Fair were, again, very successful this past year.
- The Arts Council continues to support all arts groups and their events in the North Peace through advocacy, liaison with provincial and municipal governments, administration assistance when requested, and promotion of arts events through the media and internet communications.
- The Arts Council is represented on the Peace Liard Regional Arts Council, the FSJ Communities in Bloom Committee, Alaska Highway Community Initiative, and FSJ Hospital Art Committee. The Arts Council is also a member of the Fort St. John Chamber of Commerce, Arts BC, and Art of the Peace Society.

2015-2016

The Fort St. John Arts Council will continue the above programs and activities into this next year and add:

- Organize a Studio Tour "Where Art Starts" for Saturday, Sept 26 for BC Cultural Days with the Artspost, NPCC, FSJ North Peace Museum, Kilnhouse, Cheryl's Spinning and Weaving and more artists studios.
- Create a Christmas Forest Welcoming at the North Peace Airport for holiday travellers on November 28 with the help of community groups decorating trees. The display will stay up through the holiday season.
- Support the hosting of the 2016 Performing Arts BC Provincial Festival for May 31- June 14 when 1500 participants from throughout BC will come, for the first time to Fort St. John, for the final competition in dance, music, choirs, bands and more.
- Extend the Artwalk to 2 months from mid May to mid July.
- Renew the street banners with original artwork themed "High Performance" in honour of the 2016 Performing Arts BC Provincial eEstival being held in Fort St. John.
- Support applications for new arts programs such as the pending application for "Creative Bicycle Racks" for downtown Fort St. John.
- Plan for the many Milestones in the Arts celebrations for 2017: 25years NPCC, 40years Stage North, 50years Arts Council, 60years Lido Theatre, 75years Building of the Alaska Highway, 150years of Canada

Fort St. John Community Arts Council Annual General Meeting

President's Report September 16, 2015

During the July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2015, reporting period, the Community Arts Council experienced a very active year of fundraising, initiating creative activities, supporting the tried and true and letting go of those that we can no longer managed efficiently.

During the year, the Community Arts Council (CAC) has worked cooperatively with the North Peace Cultural Society (NPCC) Board and staff in support of the Cultural Centre as a vital arts centre in our community. The Arts Council fully supported the forums on the "Future of Arts" in Fort St. John conducted by the new NPCC Board of Directors. The CAC also participated in "Bright Nights In June" to celebrate the Arts in Fort St. John.

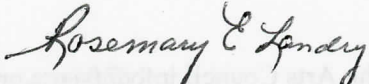

Arts Council fundraising events continued throughout the year including a successful Christmas "Recycle, Reuse, Rejoice" program, sale of the Peace Liard Regional Juried Arts Show calendars, and the very profitable promotion of the "World's Best Pies" at the Fall Fair in August with thanks to our members for their generous donation of delicious homemade pies. The Advocacy Program continued for the second year and with the generous support of community businesses along with fundraising efforts, the CAC was able to keep the Artspost open.

New fundraising events were introduced this year. A "Recipe in a Garden Pot" was a Mother's Day fun project involving flower pots painted by local artists and filled with herb and vegetable plants. A big "Thank you" is extended to the North East News for providing the display space to showcase the available pots.

The Arts Council believes that creative activities are essential for a healthy mind as part of an overall healthy lifestyle. During the year, the Arts Council accepted to organize the 3rd annual "Art Walk" extending the event from mid June to mid July involving 25 venues and 30 artists. A new Banner Project was introduced to supply original art street banners for the downtown core in the summer of 2015. Allen White was the successful artist who created the six stunning images entitled "Take Flight" in honour of the Air Show. As a member of the Peace Liard Regional Arts Council our Arts Council will function as a focal point for the Alaska Highway 75th Anniversary Celebration 2017 events.

There have been so many positive accomplishments; however, after an extensive review of the Sand Sensations BC first three years (2012-2014) and the projection for the next three years, in light of the recent down turn in the economy, it was decided, with great regret, to postpone the 2015 event. It is hoped that this cultural tourism initiative that attracted so many people will be renewed for 2017 celebrations.

In closing, please review the attached list of the accomplishments and future events. I would like to thank the Board Members for their dedication and hard work. I would also like to thank the Member Groups for their continued support, and look forward to another successful year.

Respectfully submitted,  Rosemary E. Landry FSJ CAC President

Artspost Report for 2015

Fort St. John Community Arts Council Annual General Meeting September 16, 2015

The Artspost serves as the office of the Fort St. John Community Arts Council and is the community arts studio space for the North Peace Potter's Guild, the North Peace Spinners and Weavers and the painting studio for art classes with Spectrum Art Studio. The multi-purpose room can be booked by member groups for meetings on a first come, first serve basis.

THE BUDGET

The Artspost has covered the cost of operations for another year thanks to the active participation of the members of the Arts Council pitching in for fundraising projects. The Advocacy Donations, Mother's Day Herbal Pot Sales, the Recycled Christmas Sale and the Best Pies Sale at the Fall Fair have all helped to keep the doors open at the Artspost.

The Potter's and Spinners and Weavers continue to pay monthly rent and the Spectrum Studios painting classes have been consistent users of the multi-purpose room, paying for each individual evening. We pay considerably lower rent than other buildings of similar structure and size, thanks to our landlord. The City of Fort St. John has granted us tax-exemption of $7860 each year for which we are grateful. The annual budget requires $44,200 to keep the Artspost doors open

THE OFFICE

We continue to keep the office open weekdays for 9-12 noon with volunteer help. Margaret May and Sue Popesku take 2 days a week and Rosemary does one. We all have our responsibilities while at the Artspost with grant/reports/tax-receipts (Marg), communication/fundraising events (Sue), organizing and cleaning (Rosemary). We still have no guaranteed source of funds to employ (part-time nor full time) a coordinator for the Arts Council and Artspost. The landlord has installed an outside security light for nighttime safety and had the gas system checked with various old pipes freshly sealed or replaced.

NEED FOR MORE SPACE

In our 9th year, we are finding the expanding activities has emphasized the need for more space. As an interim measure, both the Potter's and the Arts Council have purchased C-Cans for additional storage space. There is limited space for additional C-Cans in the parking lot. The need for a larger space for activities and various community arts studios is becoming more and more pronounced. The pottery and spinning and weaving studios are too small for the increasing demand of community users. The search for a permanent "Exploration Place" is required.

ACTIVITIES

Herbal Pots were painted by local artists and sold for Mother's Day with the help of the NE News office as display and Canadian Tire for potting soil donations. Rosemary once again did magic with the flowers and the flower pots in front of the Artsposts. Watering all summer was an onerous task but she never failed to keep the flowers fresh and perky.

The Artspost was the venue for the Recycled Christmas Decoration Sale and the staging point for the Artwalk/Street Banner program and the Best Pie Sales for the Fall Fair.

See attached for the 3 year budget forecast

GROUP REPORTS FOR ARTS COUNCIL AGM SEPT 16

working with Colours & Memories

- 1. THE FEDERATION OF CANADIAN ARTISTS: The Chapter has strived to meet its goals of improving the quality and range of artistic expression by its members and to promote the visual arts in the region. Each year the Chapter organises two juried shows for its Active members. In the spring of 2015 a show was held in Grande Prairie at the Centre for Creative Art. The Fall show is scheduled to be held in Dawson Creek. Next year the shows will be held in Fort St John and Beaverlodge.

The Chapter will have organised four workshops by the end of the calendar year. One workshop focussed on drawing and etching, another on abstract art, another on printmaking. These were all held in Fort St John. The fourth workshop will be held in Dawson Creek and will extend participants skills in abstract art. All workshops are led by master printmakers or senior members of the Federation.

Participation in the workshops is given first to members of the Chapter and then is made open to other artists. A strong partnership exists with many Peace Region art organisations. Membership in the PRFCA is drawn from nearly every community in the Alberta and British Columbia Peace Region. Fort St John has the largest number of members.

- 2. SCRAP BOOKING—a new group starting up: Do you love scrapbooking? Do you have several projects started, but just can't seem to finish?

We are starting a scrapbooking group on Friday Sept 25 at the ArtsPost. Bring your project, cutters, materials and supplies and join us between 9:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. every Friday morning. There is no fee and no sales person; this is a time to work on your projects and socialize. Please call Jean at 250-787-8777 for more information."

- 3. North Peace Potters' Guild:

It's been a busy year for this co-operative group of clay workers and students. The Guild is not a fee for service organization and relies on its members for the organization of the studio and all its activities. Thank you everyone.

The Guild recognizes ongoing support from the Arts Council and its volunteers. It also recognizes assistance from the City of Fort. St. John. The year started in September with a full complement of classes for adults and children. Membership was just under 30 members, most of whom are studio members and work regularly in the studio.

*Cory Johnson
30 members*

In November we hosted Huang Fe from Jindezhen, China, for a "blue and white painting workshop". Huang Fe is renowned for his work. Quite a privilege for our members and guests. Huang Fe returned to China in December, having presented Canada wide. The Guild will remain in touch.

A successful winter sale, together with the Spinners and Weavers and at the same time as the Arts Council decorations fund raiser, was held on the first weekend in December. Classes started again in January with all classes. In February the Guild had a workshop with a local instructor.

Classes ended in April and members worked on the 8th annual fund raising "Chili Bowl Bash" in June. A really good variety of bowls were available. All the normal fund raising activities on that day raised around $3000. Reports suggested it was the best "Chili Bowl" yet. And for the first time there were 2 child winners: Jessica Harrison, a repeat winner, and Dennis Hetman. Congratulations to them and thank you to our other community chefs. Funds raised go to support the studio. This is the one activity that is truly "all hands on deck". It's a lot of work but a lot of fun and a great way to highlight guild activities. Always well attended. We rely on the community for cooking facilities. Thanks, Dr. Kearney School for the 2014 event.

Last October and again this last August the guild members worked with some alternative firing processes. We did pit firing, horse hair decoration, and a process called obvara. We will be doing more of this in the coming year, and we hope some raku as well. Members have entered their work in the Regional Arts Council show and in several other shows at Peace Gallery North Funds granted by the Arts Council Grant, for which many thanks, are dedicated to our member education programme, in the form of workshops. Last year it helped to bring Huang Fe to the community. The premise is that what benefits our members' capacity will benefit the community. The Guild anticipates an even busier year. Membership has increase by 5-6 members from last year. Physical capacity is becoming a concern. Everyone's co-operation is both required and appreciated. There has been an unexpected increase in demand for the children's class. Adult classes start this week. The winter sale will be, as last year, the first weekend in December. We are hoping to bring Greg Crowe from Australia to the guild in March. Stay tuned. Finally congratulations to one of our members. Shannon Butler is presenting her sculptural work at the BC Craft Gallery on Granville Island until October 4th.

- 4. Stage North Theatre Society Stage North rehearsal and costume/prop storage and set construction area is located on the East Bypass road on the Surerus Property. They have held auditions for the season's plays and are well underway with MacBeth which opens at the end of October. Professional actor and director John Kirkpatrick will be spending a week or more with the cast and crew in honing their Shakespeare techniques.

- 5. Peace River Zone Theatre BC The Peace River Zone Theatre Festival is scheduled for June 2016. Karma Pratt is the new Chairman and Zone representative to Theatre BC. Board members are Dawn Ljuden, Les Anderson, Pam Laventure and Sue Popesku. Dale Hillman, past Chairman, has moved to Southern BC.

- 6. Peace River North Festival Association The 2015 festival was held in April and was a success overall, thanks to the support of the Cultural Centre in overcoming previous booking problems. Entries were up in guitar and strings and we added dance studios from Beaverlodge and Grande Prairie. Planning is underway for the 2016 festival. Our AGM will be on September 22 at 7 pm at the ArtsPost for anyone interested in getting involved in the organization of the festival. We are also busy with planning to host the 2016 Performing Arts BC Provincial Festival which will be held in Fort St. John May 31-June 4, 2016. Officials from the Provincial board were in Fort St. John last weekend to conduct a venue tour and they seemed very pleased with what we have in place so far. Our first volunteer recruitment meeting will be on October 5 at 7:00 pm at the Cultural Centre. Everyone is welcome to attend, even if you are only interested in doing a small job during the festival. We will need lots of help.
