

NORTH PEACE Art Society has announced the move of the Art Gallery from its 100 Ave. location to the Totem Mall. They've got this space at "very reasonable cost" according to one gallery worker, who added it may have to move again after December. In the meantime, paintings are being hung and pottery put on display. In photo, Sal Maloney straightens a painting in the new temporary gallery.

Sept 16th, 1986.

DUP

Art Society, Gallery news

APR 30, 1986

The North Peace Art Society held their monthly meeting on Monday, April 7 in the Gallery with Merle Hendricks presiding.

A nominating committee was appointed for the election of officers to take place at the May meeting.

Plans were discussed for the spring showing of new paintings to be held at the gallery from May 29 to June 7.

In connection with the Trade Show May 3 to 5, artists plan a one-day show of mostly miniature, affordable paintings at the Kids Arena on Saturday, May 3, noon to 10 p.m. The society hopes to have artists demonstrating painting techniques during the afternoon. There will be a draw for a gold pan, by Merle Hendricks.

GALLERY NEWS

Susan Wuthrich is this month's artist, and there is a display of her paintings on the feature wall. From May 5 to 17 the Gallery will feature a one-person show by Audrey Bouchard.

Dr. Kearney students are to display their work this month and the gallery also hopes to a showing of work by elementary school students in either May or June.

Gallery hours are from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday to Saturday, and also on Mondays after the first of May. Rental time is the second Thursday of each month, except for July and August. Avor Thompson has donated the painting for the lucky draw at the Gallery.

Meeting night is the first Monday of the month at 7:30 p.m. at the Gallery and new members are always welcome.

Marvin Poole will be giving a workshop in water colors June 14 and 15. Details can be obtained at the college.

DUP

Art auction sells 40 works

DUP

The North Peace Art Society Art Auction saw 40 pieces of art sold on Saturday, March 15 at the MacKenzie Inn.

Auctioneer Deb Fleet was assisted by Bob Bennets, emcee for the evening. The auction was convened by Sal Maloney. Merle Hendricks welcomed the guests and participants.

Guest artists were Heather Hannaford, who donated pottery and Peter Vogelaar, who donated a print.

At the end of the show Deb was presented with a portrait of his wife, painted by Audrey Gaddy. Gifts of appreciation also went to Irving Foster and Laine Dahlen.

The Art Group was pleased with the response of patrons and wish to thank all those who attended. Special thanks also to participating members of the gallery and others who helped in any way.

Proceeds of the auction go to the fund for a permanent gallery.

1986

Art auction success

The North Peace Art Society Art Auction saw 40 pieces of art sold on Saturday, March 15 at the MacKenzie Inn.

Auctioneer Deb Fleet was assisted by Bob Bennets, emcee for the evening. The auction was convened by Sal Maloney. Merle Hendricks welcomed the guests and participants.

Guest artists were Heather Hannaford, who donated pottery and Peter Vogelaar, who donated a print.

At the end of the show Deb was presented with a portrait of his wife, painted by Audrey Gaddy. Gifts of appreciation also went to Irving Foster and Laine Dahlen.

The Art Group was pleased with the response of patrons and wish to thank all those who attended. Special thanks also to participating members of the gallery and others who helped in any way.

Proceeds of the auction go to the fund for a permanent gallery.

photo by Denise Dirksing

TIPPING HIS HAT to the ladies, auctioneer Deb Fleet encouraged art enthusiasts to dig deep in their pockets for the chance of decorating one's home or office with the original work of local artist during the North Peace Art Society Third Annual Auction at the MacKenzie Inn.