

POT SHOP

Photo courtesy of Sue Popesku

Kay-Lisa Fehr and Megan Kindrat assist auctioneer Dave Turchanski at the annual Flower Pot Auction Saturday. Central School's Parent Advisory Council organized the auction this year, where 41 pots from last year's Communities in Bloom campaign were touched up and auctioned off. The auction raised over $10,000 for playground programs at the school.

Melanie Robinson

Members of the Fort St. John Community Arts Council and city council launch Art That Moves You 2007 on the city buses last week. Jim Eglinski, mayor, Chandra Wong, executive director Community Arts Council, Tanya Shymko, contributing artist, Lori Ackerman, council member, and Paul Teichroeb, bus driver.

Christopher Sun/AHN

MOBILE ART

(L-R) Mayor Jim Eglinski, Fort St. John Community Arts Council executive director Chandra Wong, local artist Tanya Shymko, Coun. Lori Ackerman and bus driver Paul Teichroeb show off one of eight artworks to be posted on buses this summer in the second annual Art That Moves You campaign.

A "TRASHY" ART SHOW JUNE 28 - JULY 6

THE ART OF REDUCTION

a whole new way to look at your trash

Opening Gala June 28 at 7pm at the ArtsPost • 10040 102 St

This is a "Green" Event brought to you by the Fort St. Community Arts Council in Partnership with the Northern
Environmental Action Team (NEAT).

Northern Environmental Action Team

NEAT

Fort St. John Community

ARTS COUNCIL

For More Information, Contact
Aleisha or Chandra at 787-2781

"Shaping Today, Inspiring Tomorrow"

Trash art show scheduled for June

FORT ST. JOHN — An art show of works made from reused, discarded and/or recycled materials will be held at the ArtsPost from June 28 to July 6.

Artists are encouraged to participate and the entry fee is $20 for each artwork. $10 will be returned to those who pick up their artwork on July 9, after the show ends.

The Trash Art Show is a partnership between the Fort St. John Arts Council and Northern Environmental Action Team. Information is available by calling 787-2781.