

ALASKA HIGHWAY NEWS

"The only newspaper in the world that gives a tinker's damn about the North Peace."

MONDAY, JANUARY 15, 2007

PUBLISHED MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY IN FORT ST. JOHN, B.C.

75¢ (INCLUDING GST)

FROZEN CREATION

Hardy Friedrich photo

Peter Vogelaar hurries to finish his sculpture, entitled A Cold and Starry Night, near the end of the professional ice carving competition at the High on Ice Winter Carnival at Centennial Park over the weekend. Vogelaar took second place in the abstract category. See page A8 for more coverage of High on Ice.

The City of Fort St. John presents

High on Ice Carnival!

Celebrate the best of winter at Northern B.C.'s largest winter carnival in Fort St. John.

Featuring the BC Professionally
Sanctioned Ice Carving Championship

January 12, 13 & 14, 2007

- Amateur Ice Carving
- Mayor's Ice Carving Challenge
- Snow Golf Tournament
- Snowmobile Show and Shine
- Horse Cutter Rally
- Curling Bonspiel
- Ice Fishing Derby
- Entertainment
- Food and Fun

and much, much more!

FORT ST. JOHN

The Energetic City

See the events listing
at www.cityfsj.com