2015

The year '2015' is rendered in large, colorful, stylized characters. The '2' is red, the '0' is yellow, the '1' is green, and the '5' is blue. Two blue hands, one on the left and one on the right, are shown holding the '2' and the '5' respectively. The hands are wearing black cuffs.

This happiest event in the north opens its doors again at the North Peace Cultural Centre at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 28th, 2014. For the price of a ticket ($15 single, $30 family of four with extra family members at $5 each), patrons have the opportunity for unlimited tasting of many deliciously decadent chocolate confections donated by home and commercial bakers. A live auction for the beautiful baked goods begins around 6:45 and while enjoying the tasting treats, bids can be placed at the silent auction tables.

Date: Saturday March 28th, 2015
Tickets: $15 adult, student $10, child $10.

Born in Tisdale, Saskatchewan, BRENT BUTT discovered early that being funny was a good way to get attention. Brent honed his comedy in school and at the age of 20 moved to the city to pursue a career in standup. Within months he was headlining top clubs in Toronto, and within a couple years he was touring internationally and appearing at major festivals. His TV sitcom CORNER GAS became an instant hit with unprecedented ratings and numerous accolades including an International Emmy Award nomination, and was named "Funniest Show on TV" by TV Guide readers. With Brent performing, writing, executive producing, and even directing, there is little doubt the future holds many untold achievements for one of Canada's brightest stars.

WEST AFRICAN SUMMIT

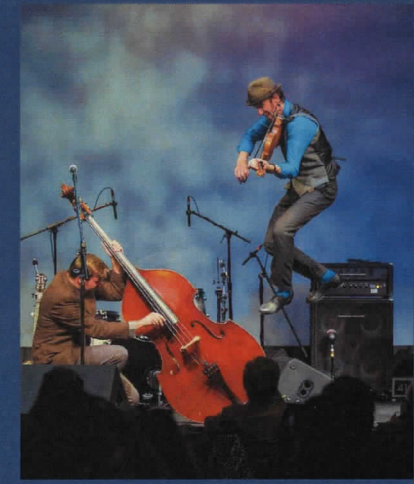

October 4 2015 7:30pm

This world music event showcases Alpha Yaya Diallo who is a 3 time Juno award winning guitarist. He is also a singer who performs with his all-star band, including two masters of traditional African instruments and 2 exuberant traditional dancers. Irresistible rhythms and exuberant dance will fill the stage, giving the audience a taste of the magic of West Africa. The show is a celebration of dancing, virtuoso musicianship and hypnotic percussion - all the elements that make the music of West Africa one of the most entertaining on the continent. This concert comes with high recommendations and promises to be an exotic and entertaining world music event.

GORDIE MACKEEAMAN AND HIS

November 12 2015 7:30pm

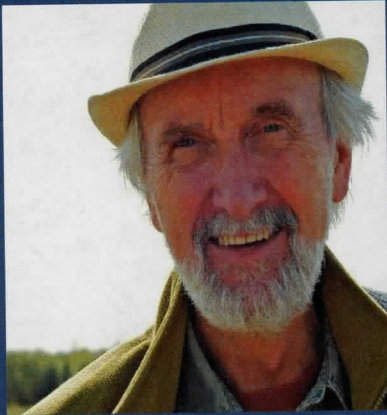

Hailing from Prince Edward Island, the award-winning Gordie MacKeeman and his Rhythm Boys serve up old-time roots music with an energy level that practically yanks you out of your seat by the collar. Tom Power, host of Deep Roots on CBC, recently called the Rhythm Boys his "Best Discovery Band" at the 2012 East Coast Music Awards. If ever someone was deserving of the nickname "Crazy Legs", it just might be Gordie MacKeeman. His thrilling dance style mixed with great bluegrass vocals, Peter Cann's blistering guitar solos, and the lively multi-instrumental talents of Thomas Webb and Mark Geddes, and Gordie MacKeeman and his Rhythm Boys are a complete entertainment package.

A gentle giant with kind eyes and an undeniable ability to make you feel good about yourself, this musical master brings 25 years of commitment, consistency and depth to a career that skillfully blends the many genres of performing and communication. Dubbed "Mr. Multi-Media" by Billboard Magazine, his diverse repertoire includes a prolific 12 Children's Albums, countless energetically packed live shows for throngs of eager audiences across North America, composing the music for APTN/YTV's Tipi Tales, and writing the score and hosting the TV documentary The Simple Way (focused on the relevant, world-wide topic of voluntary simplicity). He has, without a doubt, established himself as a fundamental part of the North American family entertainment scene. And whether it's through CDs, videos, books or television, his cornerstone philosophy remains the same: absolute trust that his work can make a difference.

MACBETH

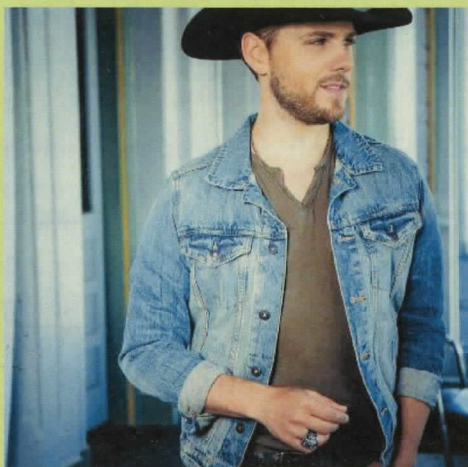

October 30, 31, November 5, 6, 7
2015 7:30pm

Macbeth is considered one of Shakespeare's darkest tragedies; exploring ambition, witchcraft, greed, and guilt. Shakespeare's shortest tragedy tells the story of a brave Scottish general named Macbeth who receives a prophecy from a trio of witches that one day he will become King of Scotland. This play makes us take a hard look at ambition and getting what you want at any cost, while also introducing us to the knock-knock joke. Macbeth has long carried the superstition of being cursed, forcing many actors or crew member to call it "The Scottish Play". While in the Theatre, it is even against the rules to say "Macbeth". The only allowance of the "M" word is when it is being performed.
