

Ken Gousseau photo

NO SIMPLE SPIN

Norma Currie, president of the North Peace Spinners and Weavers, puts on a demonstration at the North Peace Fall Fair on Sunday. Currie is shown spinning Romney cross wool. For more Fall Fair photos, see page 8.

AUG 27, 2007

Above: Norma Currie, president of the North Peace Spinners and Weavers Guild demonstrates her craft in front of the log cabin built in 1928. Currie has been attending the fair for around 15 years used sheered wool from local sheep in the demonstration. Right: On Sunday, a horseshoes tournament got men and women, young and old to compete. Here a competitor lets one go hopping to hit the pin. Below: A participant in the Heavy Horse category demonstrates farming in the old days.