

For Immediate Release:

STAGE NORTH Theatre Society has 3 Great Shows Coming Up:

April 26, 27, 28 Stage North Mary's Wedding is an epic, unforgettable story of love, hope, and survival. Set in 1914 as the world is collapsing into a brutal war, Mary and Charlie discover a charming first love with innocence and humour. Directed by Monica Maika, cast members Emry Mika and Cody McGillivray are weaving a dreamlike quality into this award winning Canadian play. Tickets are available now at the North Peace Cultural Centre or online at npcc.bc.ca.

Show time 7:30pm at NPCC

The Director (Monica Maika) of Mary's Wedding, is instructing Mary (Emry Mika) in how the saddle scene will play out.

May 10, 11, 12 Stage North is staging Blackbird by David Harrower. This play digs deep into the shattering consequences of an unconventional love affair between an older man and a very young teenager. Years later they meet and explore the unresolved issues which have shaped their lives. Only 60 people can see this show each evening since it will be staged in the Stage North SPACE at 11520 East ByPass Road. With the WARNING of Adult Content, Stage North suggest those 16 years and older see this play. Tickets are available now for $20 at North Peace Cultural Centre or online at npcc.bc.ca.

June 9 For one night only, Stage North is gathering the cast, once again, for Always Patsy Cline at the North Peace Cultural Centre. Local songstress Breanna Harrison stunned the audiences at the sold out Rotary Dinner Theatre in January with her portrayal of country classic singer Patsy Cline. Along with cast member Stevi Eby and an amazing band of accomplished musicians, Patsy Cline comes alive on stage with the unforgettable songs from earlier years. All seats are $25 and are selling quickly. Get tickets online at npcc.bc.ca or at the North Peace Cultural Centre box office. Show time is 8pm at NPCC.

For further information:

Contact 250-785-6214 or www.stagenorth.ca